LITTLE LOCALS

Mrs. J. A. Pound of Houston, is in the city a guest of Mrs. A. R. Wilson.

Miss Beatrice Harrison of Sulphur Springs, is in the city visiting her cousins, Misses Ida and Ara Buford.

A suit filed in the county clerk's office today was styled City of Beaumont vs J. A. Beller, for the purpose of trying title to 1 1/2 acres of land.

The Willie C. Flanagan & Co.'s tug that went down with the tide a few days ago was raised yesterday about 4 o'clock.

Captain Ben Eckhoff launched another charge for the Port Arthur Route yesterday morning. It is 100 feet long and 29 feet wide.

Judge R. T. Sitterley has decided to leave Beaumont and has located in Cloud Chief, Oklahoma. Judge Sitterley has made many friends while in Beaumont, who will regret his leaving.

So far the DAILY ENTERPRISE has failed to see one favorable newspaper notice of the company which is to play the White Slave here Monday night, and if there is an act of note or ability connected with the show we have not heard of it. Lurid posters is the only claim to patronage we have seen.

Bank Will Close.

The First National Bank announces that the bank will close on November 1st and 8th on account of the elections, which are legal holidays.

Will Go Hunting.

Harvey Fletcher, with a number of guests, will go down the river this evening in Colonel Fletcher's yacht, the Texas, and will indulge in duck shooting on Sabine lake tomorrow. Those who will go are, Tom King, Will O'Brien, Edna Warden, Prof. Foxhall Page and J. W. L. Daniels.

The Lady Minstrels.

The Ladies of the Episcopal church are making thorough preparations for their lady minstrel performance, and it can be safely said that it will be an entertainment well worth attending. It will be a regular minstrel performance and of the most pleasing character. A meeting of the committee will be held this evening when the full details of the performance will be arranged.

Religious Notices.

Rev. J. W. Bisher will preach at the Episcopal church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject of morning sermon, "The Golden Calf," or a "Nineteenth Century God." Sermon N. 2 night: "Martha," or "Seeing the Glory of God." Vested choir of men and boys at both services.

Preaching morning and evening at the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. R. J. Birdwell. Subject of morning's discourse, "Traits of a Great Character;" evening, "Last Words of a Great Man."

A Bad Masque.

The ladies of the Dorcas society met yesterday afternoon as per the announcement in the DAILY ENTERPRISE and decided to give a charity ball on Friday, night, November 11. It will be a mask ball and will no doubt be the event of the season as it will be distinguished socially and then it is so nice to dance for sweet charity. The funds which result from this ball will be devoted to charity and for that reason the ball will be a success financially. The ladies have not yet announced their committee but will do so next week. The ladies are in correspondence with a costumer and when terms are arranged will make an announcement to that effect. Don't make a date for anything else on Friday night, November 11.

If you are going to build let me show you a lot of wall paper.

MATTINGS.

I have some of the most astonishing bargains in mattings ever heard of in Beaumont. The fact is I was astonished at the prices at which I bought them. Why you can't afford to use bare floors when you can buy matting so cheap. Think of it! JAPANESE MATTING with cotton wool for 12 1-2 cents. Matting which usually costs 11 cents wholesale, I sell at 8 cents. I have only a few pieces in stock but will have more. Come and see these bargains.
